Meet on the Porch by 3:30

WTT Recreational Leagues feature year-round leagues that have provided playing opportunities for more than 490,000 tennis players of all ages and abilities across the United States since 1985.

WTT Recreational Leagues run year-round at public parks, tennis clubs, schools, college campuses, military bases, corporations, camps, residential communities and tennis facilities in more than 1,000 U.S. cities.

Players have an opportunity to qualify for WTT National Qualifiers and the National Championship. Participants also receive the Point of Contact newsletter along with discounted tickets to professional tennis tournaments, movies and much more through the WTT Membership Program.
